

Copperstate Centennial™

100 Years of History in the Southwest

A Television Documentary Project produced by

& The Arizona Historical Society

Agave Productions, in cooperation with the Arizona Historical Society is planning to produce a series of Arizona History documentaries that will be broadcast as a series beginning in 2005, leading up to Arizona's Centennial statehood celebration in 2012. Plans are being made to produce and broadcast six new 30-minute Copperstate Centennial programs each year. By 2012 the Copperstate Centennial series of documentaries will include approximately fifty programs that can be broadcast weekly to celebrate Arizona Statehood throughout the year.

Agave Productions is partnering with the Arizona Historical Society and local museums in the production process. All the oral histories recorded during production will be archived with AHS. Agave is working with local PBS stations to broadcast these documentaries statewide. Agave will also be working with teachers and educators to make these video histories useful for teaching Arizona History for many years to come.

Agave Productions is launching a major fundraising campaign for the Copperstate Centennial project. Each 30-minute documentary (with Teacher's Guide and DVD mastering) will cost more than $50,000 to produce. Agave is seeking $350,000 per year in underwriting and donations to make this project a reality. An initial goal is to raise $100,000...by asking 1,000 Arizonans each to contribute $100. Corporations and Foundations will be asked to match this base of support.
